

ASHBOURNE ROTARY in association with ASHBOURNE FESTIVAL

YOUNG MUSICIAN COMPETITION 2017

For many years, The Rotary Club have organised a Young Musician Competition and once again this year we are delighted to include this as part of Ashbourne Festival. Each class winner will receive £40 - the overall winner of the competition will receive £50 and may be invited to perform at the Rotary District Competition next year, or at any appropriate Rotary event.

COMPETITION RULES

Please note that by completing the entry form, you are confirming that you have read, understand and will fully comply with all the competition rules as stated below:

The competition is open to students in full-time education who are no older than 17 as of the 31 August 2017

The competition is not open to full-time students of Music or Performing Arts

Entrants cannot perform in both instrumental and vocal classes

Entrants may choose their own programme and performance time should not exceed 5 minutes

A reasonable time for tuning prior to performance will be allowed

The programme should consist of no more than two pieces of music

If your programme consists of two pieces, breaks between the pieces will be part of the total performance time

For vocal entrants, the quality of lyrics is important and vocal performers should select songs suitable for a family audience

The competition organisers will be solely responsible for designing the order of performance and position within that programme will not be negotiable

Entrants may be accompanied by a single instrument in sympathy with their performance

Entrants should provide their own accompanist (a piano is available at the venue)
